Do you think if we actually get a concurrence from Governor Sandoval by March 29th, we could slip in Anaconda in time for this listing since its now pushed to April 7?

Regions,

Site-specific circumstances have dictated that we hold off publication of the March (now April) NPL rules for a few more weeks. Our new projected publication date is April 7th.

I hope this doesn't cause any problems for any of you.
